Sooner Heritage and Common OU Scholarship Application Quick Facts

What is a Sooner Heritage Scholarship?

President Boren established the Sooner Heritage Scholarship program in 2003. This program provides scholarship support for University of Oklahoma students, especially for middle income families who still need a helping hand with college expenses. Sooner Heritage may also help families who have more than one student attending college. The Sooner Heritage Scholarship is one of OU's most accessible scholarships. Apply annually.

Who is eligible to receive Sooner Heritage Scholarships?

Any admitted student to the University of Oklahoma, including the Health Sciences Center campus, is able to apply. Undergraduate students must be enrolled in at least 6 hours per semester to qualify. Graduate students must be enrolled in at least 5 hours per semester. Awards are made based on a students' financial need as determined by the FAFSA. The FAFSA is not required for international students.

How do students apply?

For Norman and Tulsa campus students, this online application will be available for all current and admitted prospective students through the Financial Aid Services website. For OU Health Sciences Center students, the online application will be available through the HSC Student Financial Aid website.

Students who complete the online application will be considered for all Sooner Heritage Scholarships and select need-based scholarships awarded by Financial Aid Services. Students need to check with their specific college or department's website and advising office for additional scholarship opportunities. Incoming freshmen and transfer students should also visit the Prospective Students website for more scholarship information.
